A whiter shade of pale

We skipped the light fandango
Turned cartwheels 'cross the floor
I was feeling kind a seasick

But the crowd called out for more
The room was humming harder
As the ceiling flew away

When we called out for another drink
The waiter brought a tray

And so it was that later
As the miller told his tale
That her face, at first just ghostly,
Turned a whiter shade of pale

[Interlude]

She said, there is no reason
And the truth is plain to see
But I wandered through my playing cards

And would not let her be
One of sixteen vestal virgins
Who were leaving for the coast

And although my eyes were open
They might just as well've been closed

And so it was that later
As the miller told his tale
That her face, at first just ghostly,
Turned a whiter shade of pale

[Interlude]

And so it was that later
As the miller told his tale
That her face, at first just ghostly,
Turned a whiter shade of pale
